1.25 See Tickets: See Tickets BV operates an online platform for ticket sales and admission management and has been contracted by the Festival Organiser as a supplier to make its platform available to the Festival Organiser who may thus enter into an Agreement with the Customer for the sale of certain Festival Products and Services as set out in this Agreement.

1.26 Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet: means the wristband provided to each Festival Visitor at the entrance of the Festival. Festival Visitors can only access the Festival with this bracelet, which is issued after a validity check of the Customer's Ticket. If You have purchased a Comfort Ticket or an Inner Circle Ticket, Your Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet will also grant You access to the Comfort Zones or Inner Circle Zones, respectively.

1.27 Week-end Tickets: Regular tickets that give You access to the Festival on Friday, Saturday and on Sunday.

2. Scope of the Conditions

2.1 The Annexes form an integral part of these Conditions. The Customer is requested to accept these Conditions during the purchase process and at the latest when entering into an Agreement through the Official Sales Channels. You can always consult a recent version of the Conditions at www.voodooovillage.be ; or on request from the Festival's customer service department.

2.2 If You purchase Festival Products and/or Services not only for yourself but also for others, we remind You that it is Your sole responsibility to inform those people of these Conditions and any other terms and conditions that may apply to Your purchase (including the terms and conditions mentioned in article 2.3 below), and to obtain their agreement to those terms and conditions prior to Your purchase. For the record, if and to the extent that a direct relationship should arise between the Festival Organiser and the aforementioned persons in the context of the performance of the Agreement (for example, upon the creation the purchase of Token), such person will be asked to read and accept the relevant Festival Organiser terms and conditions.

3. Festival Products and/or Services: general provisions

3.1 No right of withdrawal

The right of withdrawal is expressly excluded based on Article VI.53, 12° of the Belgian Code of Economic Law. This means that You do not have a cooling-off period of fourteen (14) days to revoke, cancel or return the purchase of Festival Products and/or Services.

3.2 Age limit

The minimum age for entry to the Festival is eighteen (18) years. Any person that is seventeen (17) will be allowed to entry to the Festival if that person turns 18 after the Festival but within the calendar year of the edition of the Festival.

No exception will be made to this rule even if the person is accompanied by a parent, guardian and/or other adult. The Festival Organiser will deny entry to the Festival if, for example, the identity check mentioned below shows that the Festival Visitor has not reached the age limit conditions at the start of the Festival.

3.3 Official Sales Channels

3.3.1 Festival Products and/or Services can only be purchased through the Official Sales Channels.

3.3.2 Tickets and Parking Tickets obtained by any other means (e.g. through another sales channel) will not be considered valid by the Festival Organiser and the Festival Organiser reserves the right to refuse the holder of such ticket access to the Festival.

3.3.3 Boat Tickets, Shuttle Bus Tickets and Hotel Packages can only be purchased through the Official Sales Channels, or the platforms expressly authorised by the Festival Organiser. Tickets purchased from unauthorised channels shall be deemed invalid.

3.4 Voodoo Village Festival registration

(i) General

3.4.1 When purchasing Festival Products and/or Services, You will be asked to read and accept the Festival Organiser's terms and conditions.

(ii) Purchase

3.4.2 As soon as the official sale of Festival Products and/or Services starts, You may access the "See Tickets" tickets shop via the website www.voodooovillage.be. The Festival Organiser will operate a queuing system so that – to the extent possible – each person who gains access to the online ticket shop may actually purchase tickets.

3.4.3 The Festival Organiser reserves the right to limit the time the Customer is in the online ticket shop in order to allow as many people as possible to purchase tickets. If the purchase is not completed within this time limit, the Customer will automatically be removed from the online ticket shop and rejoin the queue.

3.4.4 It is not permitted to resell or exchange Purchased Festival Products and/or Services. The Festival Organiser reserves the right to cancel Tickets in case it is established that these Tickets are offered for sale or were fraudulently purchased despite this being prohibited. The costs resulting from the cancellation shall be borne by the seller and the purchaser, respectively. This prohibition also applies to Shuttle Bus Tickets, Boat Tickets and Hotel Packages, which are nominative and non-transferable unless otherwise explicitly authorised by the Festival Organiser.

If the name on the Ticket differs from the name on the identification document of the Customer, the Festival Organiser will always have the right to deny You access without the right to replacement of the Ticket, refund of the purchase price of the ticket or any other form of compensation.

(iii) Personalisation

3.4.5 Each Ticket of the Festival is provided to You via an e-ticket and must be personalised by entering the name, email address, gender, address, date of birth and nationality of the Festival Visitor. The Festival Visitor may be Yourself or other people for whom You purchase tickets.

3.4.6 Unless otherwise stated by the Festival Organiser, this personalisation of the Ticket must take place within the period specified in the ticket confirmation email sent to You. After this period, the personalisation is definitive and the personal data provided may no longer be changed. The Festival Organiser reserves the right to cancel the sale of Tickets for the Festival for which personalisation has not taken place within the relevant period.

3.4.7 If You purchase a Ticket of the Festival not only for Yourself but also for others (Your "Guests"), it shall be Your sole responsibility to obtain - to the extent required by law - the consent of such persons to transmit their personal data to the Festival Organiser in the context of the personalisation of such ticket, as stated herein. The provisions of Article 2.2. shall apply accordingly.

3.5 Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet

3.5.1 Only Festival Visitors in possession of a valid Tickets and corresponding ID can collect their Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet. The Festival Organiser will provide You with a Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet at the entrance to the Festival.

3.5.2 One Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet is only valid for access of one single person on the day or days for which the Ticket was purchased.

3.5.3 The Festival Visitor must always be in possession of the Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet.

3.6 Entry to the Festival and identity check

3.6.1 Only a legitimate and registered Voodoo Village Festival Tickets can grant the Festival Visitor a Bracelet which will give the access to the Festival site.

3.6.2 The Festival Organiser reserves the right to check (or have checked by designated representatives) the identity of anyone entering the Festival Site. If one cannot be identified or if the name on the Voodoo Village Festival Tickets does not match the identity of the person entering as stated on the identity document, the person concerned will be refused entry to the Festival site. A valid proof of identity includes a valid identity card, passport or driving licence. The name on the identity document must be the same as the name on which the Voodoo Village Festival Ticket registered. Copies of identity documents will not be accepted.

3.6.3 A denied admission under clause 3.6.2 does not entitle anyone to a refund.

3.6.4 For security reasons, We maintain an IN = IN, OUT = OUT policy for Day tickets. It is not allowed to leave and re-enter the Festival Site on the same day by using your Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet and/or Ticket.

3.6.5 Festival visitors who hold a Week-end Ticket and leave the Festival Site are not allowed to re-enter the Festival Site until the following day.

3.7 Loss or theft of your Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet

3.7.1 You are solely responsible for loss or theft of Your Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet after receipt from the Festival Organiser (in accordance with the provisions of these Conditions).

3.7.2 In case of loss or theft, pursuant to articles 3.7.1, the Festival Organiser is never obliged to provide

You with a new Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet. Nor can a refund be demanded.

4. Cancellations and refunds

4.1 For purchases from the Festival Organiser (via the See Tickets platform), cancellations and refunds can only be processed as provided here.

4.2 For purchases from a Festival Partner, the cancellation and refund policy are governed solely by the Festival Partner's terms and conditions. The Festival Organiser bears no liability whatsoever.

4.3 Refunds of Boat Tickets, Shuttle Bus Tickets and Hotel Packages are subject exclusively to the terms and conditions applicable to each product, as set out in Annexes 5 and 6. No refunds shall be granted outside of these conditions.

5. Liability

5.1 Liability of the Customer and Festival Visitor

(i) Refusal of access

5.1.1 Those who fail to comply with these Conditions will be immediately refused entry to or removed from the Festival Site. No refunds will be made unless otherwise agreed here.

5.1.2 The Festival Organiser reserves the right to refuse entry to multiple editions of the Festival and/or other events organised by the Festival Organiser and its affiliates, depending on the nature of non-compliance with these Conditions (e.g. if you sell drugs at the Festival).

(ii) Prosecution

The Festival Organiser reserves the right to prosecute any holder of forged Tickets relating to the Festival and Voodoo Village Festival Bracelets and any person who fails to comply with these Conditions.

5.2 Liability of the Festival Organiser

(i) Direct damage

5.2.1 The Festival Organiser shall only be liable for damage directly and exclusively resulting from an error by the Festival Organiser. Excluded from compensation are (i) damages and losses caused by Force Majeure, (ii) consequential damages and (iii) damages caused by misconduct, recklessness or serious fault by the damaged party.

5.2.2 The Festival Organiser is not liable for damages, theft or any accidents to vehicles or persons in the Festival's official parkings. Such parkings are always used at your own risk.

(ii) Force majeure

5.2.3 The Festival Organiser may only cancel or postpone the Festival in case of Force Majeure or if the Festival Organiser has another demonstrable compelling reason to cancel or postpone the Festival.

5.2.4 If the Festival is cancelled or rescheduled due to Force Majeure or demonstrable compelling reason, You will be offered a credit voucher if:

- the Festival is rescheduled or another festival of the Festival Organiser is subsequently held at or near the same location
- the Festival is rescheduled or another festival of the Festival Organiser is reorganized within one year of the issuance of the voucher

5.2.5 The voucher will represent the full value of the amount paid for the Festival Products and/or Services and no cost will be charged to You for the issuance of the voucher. The voucher will explicitly state that it was issued as a result of the Force Majeure.

5.2.6 You are entitled to refund if You prove that You are unable to attend the rescheduled Festival or the other festival on the new date and/or if the rescheduled Festival or the other festival is not organized in accordance with the conditions set out in Article 5.2.4 and 5.2.5. In this case, you are entitled to a refund of the Festival Products and/or Services.

5.2.7 Refunds will only cover the face value of the Tickets and will not include associated booking fees, delivery charge and/or recovery levy. Refunds or exchanges must be requested from your point of purchase and can only be claimed by the Customer who made the booking.

5.2.8 Only Tickets purchased through the Official Sales Channel are valid for admission. Tickets sold via third parties and other unauthorised outlets, including online auction sites, are not valid for admission.

5.2.9 If the Festival is cancelled or rescheduled due to other reason than the Force Majeure or demonstrable compelling reason, You shall in such case be entitled to compensation in respect of the purchased Festival Products and/or Services in accordance with the applicable law, but shall not be entitled to compensation for any other damages (direct or indirect). This limitation of liability also applies to Shuttle Bus Tickets, Boat Tickets and Hotel Packages, which are provided by third-party partners under their own operational responsibility.

6. Festival Products and/or Services purchased from the Festival Organiser

6.1 See Tickets platform

6.1.1 Festival Products and Services can be purchased directly from the Festival Organiser, via the website www.voodooovillage.be and via the See Tickets platform. A purchase can only be processed after the purchase price has been paid in full).

6.1.2 The Festival Organiser's Conditions and privacy policy and See Tickets' terms and conditions and privacy policy are made available in full text and must be accepted before a purchase can be made.

6.2 Token

6.2.1 Token can be purchased at cashless customer service points at the Festival Site and via the website www.voodooovillage.be during the Festival. Tokens are not sold in advance of the event. The Festival Site will be equipped with clear signage informing visitors how to purchase Token online.

The purchase and use of Token are subject to the specific terms and conditions set out in Annex 3. The terms and conditions for cashless payments will also be made available at the cashless customer service points at the Festival.

6.3 Eco Cup

6.3.1 All beverages served at the Festival are exclusively provided in an Eco Cup. For each beverage purchased, the Visitor shall pay a deposit of 0.75 Tokens (equivalent to EUR 1.50) in addition to the beverage price. Eco Cups are provided by the Festival Organiser as part of the beverage service at the Festival Site bars.

6.3.2 Festival Visitors may return Eco Cups at any bar on the Festival Site during opening hours. For each returned Eco Cup, the Visitor shall be refunded the deposit in Tokens, provided that the number of returned cups does not exceed the number of deposits previously paid by the same Visitor. If more Eco Cups are returned than were originally purchased, no refund in Tokens shall be made for the excess. Instead, the Visitor shall receive one Eco Token per surplus Eco Cup. These Eco Tokens may be used to obtain new Eco Cups when ordering beverages during the Festival, without paying an additional deposit.

6.3.3 Eco Tokens are not refundable and cannot be converted into Tokens. They have no monetary or exchange value and may only be used during the Festival.

6.3.4 Eco Cups not returned during the Festival in accordance with this article shall not be refunded.

7. Festival Products and/or Services purchased from a Festival Partner

7.1 When You purchase Festival Products and/or Services through a Festival Partner, the Festival Partner (and not the Festival Organiser) is Your contracting party. You enter into an agreement with them and are subject to their own terms and conditions of purchase, as well as to these Conditions. In case of conflict or ambiguity, the terms from the agreement between You and the Festival Partner take precedence over these Conditions.

7.2 It is the sole responsibility of the Festival Partner to provide You with a copy of the applicable terms and conditions during the purchase process and no later than at the conclusion of the agreement with

You. In this context, the Festival Organiser is released from any contractual liability to You.

7.3 For purchases from a Festival Partner, the cancellation and refund policy are governed solely by the Festival Partner's general terms and conditions. The Festival Organiser bears no liability whatsoever.

8. Third-Party services and activities

8.1 Certain services, activities or experiences may be offered on the Festival Site by independent Third-party providers. These Third-party Providers operate in their own name and under their sole responsibility.

8.2 The Festival Organiser does not assume any responsibility or liability for the quality, performance, safety, legality or hygiene of such third-party services, including but not limited to the obtaining of necessary legal consents.

8.3 Any claims, complaints or incidents arising from or related to such services must be addressed directly to the Third-party Provider.

8.4 By participating in or making use of any such third-party services, the Festival Visitor acknowledges and accepts that this is done entirely at their own risk. The Festival Organiser shall in no event be held liable or responsible in any manner whatsoever for any act, omission, damage, injury, loss or claim arising out of or in connection with such third-party services.

9. Privacy

9.1 When purchasing and/or using Festival Products and/or Services, personal data will be processed in accordance with the Festival Organiser's privacy policy, as available at www.voodooovillage.be.

9.2 When purchasing through a Festival Partner, You are subject to the privacy policy of that party. The Festival Organiser has no control over the information You enter there and how it is processed and is in no way responsible for it. It is Your responsibility to use this thoughtfully and read the privacy policies of these third parties carefully before accepting them.

10. Applicable law, competent court and ODR

10.1 These Conditions are governed exclusively by Belgian law, to the exclusion of the rules of international private law.

10.2 All disputes shall be settled by the competent court in Brussels, to the exclusion of all other courts. However, the Festival Organiser reserves the right to file a claim with the court that would be competent under the legal jurisdiction rules.

10.3 The Festival Organiser hereby informs You of the existence of the European Union's 'Online Dispute Resolution' platform. In the event of a dispute, the Festival visitor may request an out-of-court dispute resolution request at <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>.

11. Other provisions

11.1 If any provision of these Conditions, or any part thereof, is or is declared invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of these Conditions or the remainder of that provision shall remain in full force and effect and such provision shall be automatically replaced (by operation of law) by a valid provision that is as close as possible to the invalid provision.

11.2 Customers expressly acknowledge and accept that certain Annexes to these Conditions, as well as certain operational provisions of these Conditions, may be updated even after the purchase of a Ticket. Such updates may only be made where required for legal, safety, organisational or technical reasons, and may include, without limitation, cashless payments, transport arrangements, House Rules, and stage schedules. These updates shall not affect the essential elements of the Agreement, including the type of Ticket purchased, the dates of the Festival, the access rights associated with the Ticket, or the price already paid. Updated versions of these Conditions will be published on www.voodooovillage.be and shall apply as from the time of their publication. Where reasonably practicable, Customers will also be informed by e-mail of material updates.

1. Festival opening hours

1.1 The opening hours of the Festival are as follows (subject to change):

Friday 11 September 2026: 16:00 - 00:00

Saturday 12 September 2026: 14:00 - 01:00

Sunday 13 September 2026: 14:00 - 00:00

1.2 The line-up of artists determines the accessibility of the number of stages and the opening hours of each stage. Outside a stage's opening hours, the stage area is not accessible to the public.

1.3 With a validated Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet, the Festival Visitor can check-in on each festival day until 23:00; after 23:00 it is no longer possible to enter the Festival Site.

The Festival Organiser reserves the right to refuse entry to Festival Visitors who arrive 11pm to the Festival Site, even if the Festival visitor holds a valid Festival entry Ticket.

1.4 Only Visitors in possession of a Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet with Comfort access rights will be granted entry to the Comfort Zones. These zones include priority access at the festival entrance, access to the Comfort Village (which features a comfort bar, a chill area, upgraded restroom facilities, and a dedicated locker area), and access to the Yard Comfort Deck. Visitors with Comfort access rights can book tables by sending an email to info@voodooovillage.be. Food, beverages, and parking services are not included in the Comfort access rights.

1.5 Only Visitors in possession of a Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet with Inner Circle access rights will be granted entry to the Inner Circle Zones. These zones include access to the Forest Backstage, the Yard Backstage, the Yard Comfort Deck, and the Comfort Village behind the Yard (which features a comfort bar, a chill area, upgraded restroom facilities, and a dedicated locker area). Visitors with Inner Circle access rights can book tables by sending an email to info@voodooovillage.be. Food, beverages, and parking services are not included in the Inner Circle access rights.

1.6 After closing hours of the Festival, bars remain open for 15 minutes for the sale of non-alcoholic drinks only, with the exception of the bars at the Observatory stage and the Oracle stage, which will be closed immediately upon Festival closing.

2. Festival program

2.1 The Festival Organiser may, for compelling reasons (e.g. weather conditions, security, artist cancellations), be required to change or modify the Festival programme and to close Festival stages. In this case, the Festival entry ticket will remain valid and no entry tickets will be refunded or exchanged (in whole or in part).

Annex 2: Voodoo Village Festival 2026 house rules

Voodoo Village Festival aims to be a safe place, where everyone feels welcome and comfortable, where no one faces discrimination or harassment. We wish that everyone, regardless of gender, orientation, culture, religion, ethnicity or disabilities, can be themselves, feel safe and be treated respectfully at the Festival. To achieve this, we expect all visitors to behave responsibly, and the following house rules apply to all visitors of Voodoo Village Festival 2026 (the 'House Rules').

The House Rules are an integral part of the Conditions and are also posted at the entrance of the Festival. The House Rules are always implemented in accordance with locally applicable rules and regulations.

1. Tickets and Bracelets

Tickets for the Festival and/or Voodoo Village Festival Bracelets are in principle non-refundable or exchangeable.

In case of loss or theft of Festival Tickets and/or Voodoo Village Festival Bracelets, these will not be replaced or refunded.

Persons under 18 will not be admitted, even if accompanied by a parent, guardian and/or other adolescents. Any person that is seventeen (17) will be allowed to entry to the Festival if that person turns 18 after the Festival but within the calendar year of the edition of the Festival.

The Festival Organiser and/or the official ticket vendor reserve(s) the right to check the identity of the Festival Visitor when checking the ticket and/or the Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet. If you are unable to present a valid identification document, security is authorised to refuse you access to the Festival. The following are considered valid identification documents: identity card, passport or driving licence. Copies will not be accepted. If you are caught with a false identity document, this will be considered identity fraud and you will be refused entry to the Festival. You will also face criminal charges.

Tickets for the Festival and/or Voodoo Village Festival Bracelets may not be used for commercial or promotional purposes without prior permission from the Festival Organiser.

Tickets for the Festival and/or Voodoo Village Festival Bracelets may not be resold without the express and written consent of the Festival Organiser or official ticket seller. Tickets for the Festival that are resold without this express and written consent of the Festival Organiser and/or official ticket vendor shall not entitle you to enter the Festival. The Festival Organiser and/or official ticket vendor also reserve(s) the right to cancel tickets for the Festival as soon as it is established that tickets for the Festival have been offered for sale despite this prohibition. The costs resulting from such cancellation shall be recovered from the buyer.

Changes in the line-up will not result in a full or even partial refund of the Tickets or Parking Tickets for the Festival.

Visitors may not enter areas to which their Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet does not grant access (e.g. comfort zone, Inner Circle Zone, stages, etc.).

2. Access control

Access control is based on applicable legislation, aimed at detecting weapons and dangerous objects. Should these items be present on the Festival Site, they could have a negative impact on the smooth running of the event or endanger the safety of visitors.

Entry to the Festival site may be refused and visitors may be removed from the Festival Site (without entitlement to a refund of the entry fee) if, in the opinion of the Festival Organiser or its representatives, a visitor is or could reasonably constitute a danger to himself and/or others visitors, in particular if the visitor: (the following list is not exhaustive):

- o is under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
- o is in possession of drugs or dealing drugs;
- o had previously been refused entry to other events/meetings by the Festival Organiser or other authorities;
- o displays behaviour or wears clothing clearly aimed at disturbing the peace, provoking or inciting violence, hatred, anger, xenophobia, racial hatred, etc;
- o endanger the lives of other visitors;
- o is in possession of prohibited items;
- o refuses to be searched by authorised security personnel;
- o refuses or fails to comply with the Conditions.

3. Security check

Entry to the Festival Site implies acceptance of all prevention and control measures taken by the Festival Organiser or security team, including the search of persons and bags.

Anyone wishing to enter the Festival Site may be searched by authorised security personnel before gaining access to the Festival Site, always in accordance with local applicable laws and regulations.

Authorised security personnel may ask people of the same sex to be searched and/or have their clothes and luggage searched to intercept prohibited items as set out in the House Rules (as incorporated herein). If prohibited items are found, security personnel have the right to confiscate them and refuse their owner access to the Festival. In case of such confiscation or refusal, no refund will be made.

Everyone presents on the Festival Site must at all times comply with the instructions and guidelines of the Festival Organiser or his authorised representatives on the Festival Site, in order to ensure public order and safety during the Festival.

For security reasons, the Festival Organiser reserves the right:

- o to pause or stop the Festival;
- o to prevent visitors from leaving the Festival Site until further notice;
- o to ask visitors to leave the Festival Site;
- o to refuse visitors access to the Festival, even if they are in possession of a valid Ticket.

Visitors to Voodoo Village Festival are not allowed:

- o to enter zones to which their Voodoo Village Festival Bracelet does not grant access (Comfort zone, Inner Circle zone, stages, etc.);
- o to climb on tents, structures, fences, light bridges, benches or other structures on the Festival Site;
- o to block entrances, exits and emergency exits ;
- o to disguise themselves so as to be unrecognisable with the intention of disturbing the peace or endangering the safety of other visitors ;
- o to sell food, drinks or other products without the express permission of the Festival Organiser;
- o throwing or shooting objects in solid, liquid or gas form;
- o to smoke in places where smoking is prohibited, especially in tents, buildings and other indoor venues;
- o to urinate in public, except in places provided for that purpose;
- o to wear full face masks (masks, morph suites, etc.);
- o to park a vehicle without official permission from the Festival Organiser. Cars may be towed away at the owner/user's expense;
- o to take down, tear down or destroy decorations;
- o to steal decorations or other material owned by the Festival Organiser, its employees and/or its suppliers;
- o to make open fire;
- o to do crowd surfing or stage diving;
- o to be involved in any criminal offences including any sexual offences;
- o to wear texts, symbols, objects, clothing and/or other (visible) external expressions that explicitly refer to a political, social movement or group. Anything indicating discrimination, incitement or racism is strictly prohibited.

4. Prohibited items

The following items are prohibited on the Festival Site

- o bring your own food and drinks to the Festival Site;
- o drugs or other illegal mind-altering substances;
- o deodorant or perfume in packages of more than 100 ml;
- o other objects (umbrellas, umbrellas, camera tripods, laser pens, etc.) that security personnel deem to pose a risk to other Festival visitors;
- o projectiles or explosives in solid, liquid or gas form;
- o flammable products or materials and aerosols;
- o pyrotechnic articles (fireworks, flares, etc.);
- o other weapons or sharp, pointed objects (sticks, chains, knives, etc.);
- o banners or objects with discriminatory and/or provocative texts or expressions that may be used to disturb the peace, or that may endanger the safety of the crowd and/or cause injury or damage to persons and property;
- o animals (except guide dogs for the vision impaired people);
- o drones;
- o any other objects that the Festival Organiser or its representatives deem dangerous to the organisation and passage of the Festival and/or other visitors.

However, the following items are allowed on the Festival Site:

- o guide dogs for visually impaired people;
- o disposable or pocket cameras;
- o pinless retractable umbrellas (not parasols);
- o plastic sheeting and blankets to lie/sit on;
- o sunscreen, cosmetics, deodorant in packs of up to 100 ml;
- o refreshers / atomisers, small backpacks or other bags.
- o selfie sticks that are less than 1 m long when extended and are intended for photography only. It is forbidden to make open fires.

To preserve the safety of the Festival and other visitors, do not disguise yourself unrecognisably.

The directives and instructions of the (security) staff should always be followed immediately. In case of suspicion or actual possession of illegal or dangerous products, security personnel have the right to stop and search the person concerned.

5. Drug policy = zero tolerance

Voodoo Village Festival has an absolute zero tolerance policy on drugs! It is forbidden to carry and/or use drugs on the Festival Site. If you are caught doing so, you will be removed from the Festival Site. This policy is strictly enforced and, in any event, means that the case will be handed over to the police. All visitors will be allowed to deposit drugs in special drug barrels without any (legal) consequences before entering the Festival Site.

It is forbidden to deal drugs on the Festival Site. If such a violation is uncovered, you will be removed from the Festival Site and handed over to the police.

If a visitor is prescribed certain medication for health reasons, he/she must present a valid medical certificate before being allowed to bring that specific medication onto the Festival Site.

6. The festival site - damage to materials

All visitors are requested to do their bit to keep the surroundings as clean as possible. On the Festival Site and the Parking, it is clearly marked where you can leave your rubbish. Please make use of this.

Tearing off, breaking or any other form of destruction to the material of the Festival Organiser or its suppliers, including theft, will result in removal from the Festival. Entry will be denied for the remainder of the Festival and may be denied for subsequent years.

Visitors are not allowed to climb on tents, structures, fences, light bridges, benches or other structures on the Festival site.

7. Merchandise

The official merchandise "Voodoo Village" is only available at the Festival and on the Voodoo Village Festival's official web shop (<https://voodoovillage.be>) or at our partners stores.

8. Photographs and video recordings - camera surveillance

Photo and video recordings will be made during the Festival. There is a good chance that you will be filmed. By entering the Festival Site, you agree to the processing of these images by Voodoo Village Bv. and its partners.

Camera surveillance at the Festival will be carried out in accordance with local legislation. These recordings will only be used for security purposes during the Festival and will not be passed on to third parties, except to the competent authority upon receipt of a formal request.

The Festival Organiser and/or the official ticket vendor reserve(s) the right to verify the identity of visitors.

Digital cameras and/or video cameras are allowed on the grounds with the exception of (semi-) professional equipment.

9. Toilets

Use of toilets is free of charge at the Festival. It is strictly forbidden to urinate in public, except in the places provided for that purpose. If you are caught urinating in public, you risk being removed from the Festival Site.

10. Smoke

Smoking is prohibited in indoor areas (such as tents, buildings and indoor venues).

11. Promotion

It is forbidden to distribute flyers or put-up posters during the Festival. Visitors wishing to promote their own events can place an ad in the Voodoo Village Festival newspaper distributed to visitors during the Festival.

12. Safety in front of and around the stage - Prohibited actions

Crowd surfing and stage diving are prohibited at the Festival. Expulsion from the Festival Site when this rule is not observed is the logical consequence.

Visitors to the Festival should not block any entrances, exits and emergency exits.

13. Loss or damage

The artists and the Festival Organiser cannot be held liable for damage, loss or theft, nor for any other accident.

14. Force majeure

The Festival Organiser may be forced to close stages due to weather conditions or other force majeure events. This will not result in a partial or full refund.

15. Parking

Parking facilities are available near the Festival Site. During the ticket sale period, you may purchase a Parking Ticket, which grants access to any of the designated car parks. Please be aware that it is not possible to reserve a specific car park or parking space. Upon payment, you will receive an e-ticket that authorizes you to park your vehicle. The ticket sale period will be announced on our website.

Comfort Parking Tickets, which are parking tickets granting access to a designated area located closer to the main Festival entrance, are reserved for Visitors holding a Comfort Ticket or an Inner Circle Ticket. They are sold exclusively in pre-sale via the Official Sales Channels and are not available for purchase at the entrance. The Visitor is advised that the local municipality prohibits camping in the parking areas. As a result, the Festival Organiser disclaims any responsibility for the denial of access to parking areas for motorhomes, mobile homes, vans, caravans, or any other camping vehicles by the police authorities or Festival staff acting under the direction of local law enforcement.

The visitor expressly agrees to indemnify the Festival Organiser against any liability for damages, theft, or other incidents involving vehicles or persons within the official Festival parking lots.

16. Disability

Visitors with disabilities can use the reserved car park upon presentation of a blue parking card. Please notify us in advance if you wish to use this car park, by sending an e-mail to: info@voodooovillage.be

Festival Visitors must present a valid Ticket and a government-issued ID corresponding to the name indicated on the Ticket. In the absence of a valid and matching identification document, access to the transport may be refused without refund or compensation.

All Festival Visitors using Boat or Shuttle Bus services remain subject to the Festival House Rules as set out in Annex 2. These rules apply in full during the journey. Any breach of the House Rules or of the instructions given by transport staff or security personnel, including behaviour deemed disrespectful, dangerous or inappropriate, may result in denial of access to the Festival Site or immediate removal from the vehicle or the boat, without any right to refund or compensation.

The Festival Organiser and its partners shall not be liable for any consequences arising from such denial of access or removal pursuant to this clause.

5. Refunds and cancellations

Boat Tickets and Shuttle Bus Tickets are nominative, time-specific and non-refundable. No refund shall be granted in the event of delay, cancellation, missed departure, or no-show by the Customer. Any request for modification, change of shift or name must be made directly to the relevant transport partner, who remains solely responsible for the applicable conditions. The Festival Organiser shall not intervene in or be held liable for such changes or refusals.

Annex 6: Hotel packages

1. Scope of the Hotel Package

The Hotel Package includes accommodation for two persons in a double room with private bathroom, seating area, flat screen television, safe and Wi-Fi access. Room service, breakfast, luggage storage and late check-out at 2 PM are included in the package. A shuttle service to and from the Festival Site is also provided. The Hotel Package does not include any Festival Ticket, which must be purchased separately.

2. Reservation and check-in

The Hotel Package may only be booked through the Official Sales Channel. Upon arrival at the hotel, the Customer must present a valid government-issued photo ID and may be required to provide a security deposit by credit card or, if accepted by the hotel, in cash. The deposit may be used for incidental expenses incurred during the stay. The unused balance of the deposit will be refunded upon check-out, in accordance with the hotel's internal policies. Check-in is generally available from 15:00 and rooms are held until midnight. In case of expected late arrival, the Customer must notify the hotel directly. Early check-in remains at the sole discretion of the hotel and depends on room availability.

3. Check-out and early departure

Check-out must take place before the time set by the hotel, which is generally around 11:00. Late check-out at 14:00 is included in the Hotel Package. If the Customer or the persons for whom the Hotel Package was purchased decides to leave the hotel earlier than expected, no refund shall be due.

4. Liability and behaviour

The Customer undertakes to respect the house rules and general policies of the hotel. Any serious or repeated breach of those rules may result in the immediate termination of the stay without prior notice and without any right to compensation. The Customer shall be liable for any damage caused to the hotel's premises, property, equipment or persons by themselves or their guests. The Customer further undertakes not to invite any person whose behaviour, reputation or presence may in any way prejudice the safety, tranquility or image of the hotel. In case of non-compliance with this obligation, the hotel may deny access to such persons without compensation.

5. Security and emergency measures

The hotel reserves the right to take any emergency measure it deems necessary in the interest of safety. In the event of an emergency situation endangering the hotel, its personnel or its guests, the Customer shall not be entitled to claim any compensation resulting from such measures, including the early termination of the stay.

6. Smoking policy

All partner hotels operate under a strict non-smoking policy. In the event of a breach of this policy, the hotel may charge a deep cleaning fee, which shall be borne in full by the Customer.

7. Refunds and cancellations

Hotel Packages are non-refundable and non-cancellable, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the hotel. All changes to the reservation, including name changes, early departure or late arrival, are subject exclusively to the hotel's internal policies. The Festival Organiser shall not be liable for any refusal, charge or condition imposed by the hotel in relation to such changes.

8. Complaints and dispute resolution

The Customer undertakes to submit any complaint relating to the Hotel Package directly to the hotel management and to attempt to reach an amicable solution. The Customer shall refrain from making any public communication (including via social media or the press) prior to notifying the hotel and attempting to resolve the dispute. All complaints must be sent in writing to the hotel within seven calendar days following the end of the Festival. Any dispute not resolved amicably shall fall under the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Brussels, and Belgian law shall apply.

Annex 7: Early Bird Tickets

1. Scope

This Annex governs the specific rules applicable to Early Bird Tickets, as defined in Article 1.11 of the Conditions. It supplements the Conditions and prevails only for matters expressly covered herein.

2. Purchase Process

2.1 Early Bird Tickets are made available exclusively through a private sales link communicated by the Festival Organiser.

2.2 The Customer selects the number and type of Tickets (Regular Day Ticket or Week-end Ticket) and, where applicable, the dates of attendance.

2.3 During the purchase process, the Customer must provide the following personalisation data for each Ticket: full name, first name, country and e-mail address.

2.4 Payment is processed via See Tickets. Upon completion, the Customer receives a purchase confirmation by e-mail.

3. Upgrades and Modifications

3.1 Upon receipt of the confirmation e-mail, the Main Buyer may use the “MANAGE ORDER” link to allocate each Early Bird Ticket:

- (i) either by completing the required personalisation data (name, first name, date of birth, gender, postal address and e-mail address) on behalf of the Festival Visitor; or
- (ii) by forwarding a personalisation link to the designated Festival Visitor, who will then complete the personalisation process directly.

3.2 Once the general Ticket sale has been launched, Early Bird Ticket holders may further use the “MANAGE ORDER” link to:

- (i) change the selected festival day (for Day Tickets) provided that if the newly selected Day Ticket has a higher price at the applicable sale phase, the Early Bird Ticket holder shall pay the difference; or
- (ii) upgrade to another Ticket category (e.g. Comfort, Inner Circle, Week-end Tickets), subject to payment of the price difference.

3.3 In case of downgrade, no refund of the price difference shall be made.

4. Refunds and Cancellations

Early Bird Tickets are non-refundable and non-cancellable, except as expressly provided in the Conditions (including, but not limited to, cancellation of the Festival or Force Majeure events).
